

"LET EVERYTHING BE YOURS IN COMMON.
THE FRONTIERS OF POVERTY."

Istituto Patristico Augustinianum
ROME, ITALY | 16–17 SEPTEMBER 2026

---

First Bulletin - June 2026

Dear Colleagues,

It is our great honour to announce the first conference organized by the International Study Center Papa Leone XIV, titled "Let everything be yours in common. The Frontiers of Poverty," to be held in Rome from 16 to 17 September 2026.

The Internationale Study Center Papa Leone XIV is a research and educational institution dedicated to promoting a high level of formation for social and political life, deeply rooted in the Social Doctrine of the Church. Established within the Order of Saint Augustine, the Center addresses contemporary global challenges through the lens of human dignity and the common good. This conference marks a significant milestone in our mission to foster dialogue on the ethical and social responsibilities of our time.

Conference Focus: The Frontiers of Poverty

The conference will provide an interdisciplinary and research forum to examine the multifaceted nature of poverty.

The Workshop's activities will commence with a Lectio Magistralis, the objective of which is to furnish a comprehensive overview of the subject of poverty. The programme will subsequently be developed around four pillars:

- Scripture and its re-writings: a complex Tradition
- Contemporary issues facing Catholic social doctrine
- Experiences and proposals
- Contributions from young scholars

Venue and Participation

- Location: The sessions will take place in Rome, at the Istituto Patristico Augustinianum, Via Paolo VI.
- Registration: Participants are kindly requested to use the official Indico page to complete their registration. (<https://indico.studiumleonexiv.org/event/7/>)
- Conference Fee: A participation fee of 100,00 euros is required to cover organizational costs.
